

People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

Ministry of National Education

The National Institute for Educational Research

A summary of the study day on 05-06-2021

The National Institute for educational Research organized a study day for the members of certification commission on the complementary and utilized pedagogical means and supports and school textbook and extracurricular textbooks entitled “elaboration of technical rulebook” on May 6th,2021 according to the resolution of djoumada El Oula 12th, 1442 corresponding to December 27th,2020 which modifies the resolution of Djoumada El Thania 8th, 1440 corresponding to March 5th,2019 which defines the composition of certification commission and its function through the presence of Professor Radia BERNAOUI, who is the Director of the National Institute for Educational Research and the president of the certification commission and ladies and gentlemen members of the commission. The (ZOOM) platform was used for the participation of other members who couldn't come to the institute. The official installation of the certification commission and elaborating and debating its rules of procedure in order to be validated.

The certification commission is in charge of:

- *Elaboration of an assessment table in accordance with pedagogical, scientific, technical and artistic specifications of each complementary means and the extracurricular textbook;
- *Study and assessment of the complementary and the utilized means and the extracurricular textbook that need to be certified;
- *Expertise of the proposed projects for certification according to the elaborated rulebook.

The certification commission consists of the president of commission who is the Director of the National Institute for Educational Research, members of scientific researchers, professors and inspectors specialized in: languages, education science, human and social science, exact and experimental science, physics, technological science and art and sports education. The members of this commission will be appointed according to the decree of the ministry in charge of the national education and a proposal of the director of the National Institute for Educational Research.

The certification commission is installed within the National Institute for Educational Research and the general secretariat of the institute manages the permanent technical secretariat of the commission.