

People's Democratic Republic of Algeria
Ministry of National Education
National Institute for Research in Education

Report of the National Seminar

The role of the Algerian school in consolidating the principles of the Revolution of November 1st

October 30th, 2022

In the context of the celebration of the sixty-eighth anniversary of the outbreak of the liberation revolution on the first of November 1954, the National Institute for Research in Education hosted a national seminar entitled: The role of the Algerian school in consolidating the principles of the Revolution of November the first under the slogan "The Algerian school is the asset of the liberation revolution".

The national seminar opened with the national anthem, followed by a word addressed by Pr. Radia BERNAOUI, Director of the National Institute for Research in Education, in which she welcomed the distinguished attendees and recalled the role played by the Algerian school in supporting the revolution of November the first 1954.

The National Seminar included a plenary session chaired by Dr. Amina MOUSLI and presented by Pr. Nadjat BEYA with an intervention entitled "The Algerian liberation revolution and its historical roots", and in a stirring way that led the audience to that honorable era of Algeria's history, the storyteller Naïma MEHAILIA presented the story of the martyr Mourad BEN SAFI.

This seminar was an opportunity for serious and meaningful discussions on the topic, and in the same context the participating professors and distinguished guests expressed their thanks for commemorating this blessed and precious anniversary on the hearts of all Algerians.

At the end of the activities of the National Seminar, the Director of the Institute honored the participants by presenting certificates to them, and thanked all the contributors to the success of this celebration, and then the conclusion of this ceremony was announced at 11:15 am.